POWELL'S BALM OF ANISEED, for Coughs, Colds, Shortness of Breath, Asthma, &c.—This valuable medicine has the extraordinary property of immediately relieving Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, difficulty of Breathing, and Huskiness in the Throat. It operates by dissolving the congealed Phlegm, consequently causing a free expectoration.

Those who are troubled with that unpleasant tickling in the throat, which deprives them of rest night after night, by the incessant cough which it provokes, will, by taking one dose, find immediate relief; and one bottle in most cases will effect a cure.
Price 25 cents per bottle.
For sale at the Perfumery, Fancy, and Patent Medicine Depot of JAMES CLEPHANE, corner of Penn. av. and 12th street.

ICE! ICE! ICE!—The subscriber having succeeded, at a very great expense, in filling his large house with Potomac Ice, of a very superior quality, is now prepared to receive orders for the coming season. He would advise all private families, keepers of hotels, boarding-houses, confectionaries, &c., who wish a supply through the entire season, to make early application, and they will not be disappointed, as many were last summer, by one or two small dealers in that article, who attempted to furnish and failed in the hottest weather, when it was most wanted.

He has the largest house in the District, and will feel bound to furnish those who commence with him until next December if they require it.
Persons wishing ice before the season for delivering from the wagons, can get it by sending to the store, where it is kept constantly on hand.

TO THE AFFLICTED!
HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC DISEASES.—The most safe and certain remedy ever known to the world for various chronic diseases, after they have reached a state, and assumed a character, hitherto considered desperate and incurable.

Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofula, Kings Evil, attended with swellings and ulcers, sore eyes, and loss of sight, to a frightful extent, have been cured. Females pining away by reason of deranged secretions, broken calculations, and obstructed menses, (monthly courses) even when attended by spasms or fits, have been readily relieved.

Dyspepsia yields without a struggle to its mild yet powerful action upon the stomach. In Catarrh, or Cough, Rheumatism, and Fistula, it never fails to cure, as we have fully proved. All diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood and fluids, will be speedily and effectually removed by this invaluable medicine.

This tincture tends directly to excite a healthy action in the stomach, liver, lungs, and kidneys, to purify the blood and other fluids, by expelling every particle of morbid matter from the system, and therefore never fails to prove a valuable remedy for the diseases which calomel has been invariably used. Old sores and ulcers, or any chronic affection; and for the calomel disease, it is an infallible remedy.

This remedy is perfectly vegetable, mild, agreeable, and safe for persons of any age, either sex, or any condition, acknowledged by those who have tried it, to be the best known family medicine.

The justly celebrated tincture creates a craving appetite, and the patient is left at liberty to indulge it. The use of this medicine will change the complexion from a pale to a fine blooming one. After using this tincture for six weeks, a person of any age may eat anything that a child of ten years of age, in full health, could eat, without the least inconvenience.

Dr. Hampton is in possession of certificates from the Hon. Henry Clay, Col. Richard M. Johnson, Hon. John B. Dawson, of La., and many others, who have been benefited by the use of this tincture.

For certificates, &c., see pamphlet.
REMEMBER! Hampton's Vegetable Tincture can be had only at the Segar Store of

H. G. RITTER,
Pennsylvania Avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, and at
A. G. GARDNER'S,
Seed Store, F street, between 9th and 10th streets, opposite the Catholic church.

Each bottle has the proprietor's signature on the label.

THE TRUTH SOMETIMES NOT FOUND OUT UNTIL TOO LATE.

SUCH is often the case in regard to persons taking medicine. They are induced by plausible reasoning, false representation and doctrines, to employ medicines that, so far from being adapted to their disease or sickness, absolutely increase the symptoms, destroy the constitution, rack the whole system, and bring on a gradual decline, terminating in death; previous to the fatal termination, however, (but unfortunately too late), the truth is found out that the pills, mixtures, &c. they have been taking were composed of the most powerful and dangerous ingredients, prepared too by persons knowing nothing of disease or the nature of the medicines they recommended, depending altogether upon the "general doctrine of such impostors," that their medicines will "kill or cure." Be advised, then, if you find it necessary to take some medicine for purifying the blood and cleansing the bowels, to take nothing but Dr. Leidy's justly and deservedly celebrated SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS, the only pills containing Sarsaparilla in their composition—the safest and best as well as the most effectual that can be taken.

Old and young, at all times, without regard to weather, may take them without fear of taking cold, and without restraint from occupation or usual course of living. Upwards of 1,000 certificates have been published, various times, of their efficacy. More than 100,000 boxes have been sold in Philadelphia in twelve months. These facts go to prove their value, or so many never would be sold in so short a time, in a place where they are manufactured; this, however, arises from the fact that the manufacturer of them (Dr. Leidy) is well known at home as a regular physician and apothecary, knowing the true nature of diseases and of the medicines he recommends, attested by the most celebrated physicians, among whom are Dr. Nathaniel Chapman, Dr. Wm. Gibson, Dr. W. E. Horner, Dr. Samuel Jackson, Dr. Robert Har, Dr. P. S. Physic, Dr. T. C. James, Dr. W. P. Dewees, Dr. J. Redman Cox, Rev. W. H. Delancy, Robert Adrian, L.D., &c. &c.

Orders for Dr. Leidy's BLOOD PILLS are daily received from the North, South, East, and West, and the most flattering accounts, from every direction, of their unparalleled success. A single box (25 cents) may save as many dollars, if taken in time, instead of the dangerous medicines now forced on the public, and by taking which persons so often find it necessary at last to take Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills, to counteract their injurious consequences.

They are prepared only, and sold Wholesale and Retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191, North Second street, below Vine street, Philadelphia. And by CHARLES STOTT, Agent for the District.

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Whig Standard.

THE LOCOFOCOS' LAMENT.

We're beaten, we're beaten, both foot and dragons;
We're scandalously beaten, by hard cider and coon s
Not a vestige is left of us staunch Democrats—
We're hatless, we're shirtless, we're laid on our backs.

Whig Convention, Convention, Oh, what hast thou done?
Your flourish of trumpets, and sound of the drum,
Has scattered us Locos like leaves on the wind,
And left but confusion confounded behind.

We had hoped, we had hoped, that a family quarrel
Would have knock'd in the bung of the hard cider barrel;
That the wool from the back of the coon would be torn,
And fly in the air like the down in the storm.

Disappointment, disappointment, crush'd our hopes in probation—
Unanimity governed the voice of the nation—
The shout has been heard, still louder 'tis rising,
For the great Henry Clay and the good Frelinghuysen.

Have pity, have pity on Amos, we beg,
And break not his heart, his wind, or his leg;
The omens he saw were a second-sight vision—
The eyes that he look'd through were surely not his'n!

For the Globe we ask nothing—so lean he has grown,
By sucking so long at the Kinderhook bone,
That his hide's not worth saving, not even to tan,
To make shoes of goat skin for poor little Van.

You've whipp'd us by cities, you've thrash'd us by States—
We're jumbled together like earthenware plates—
We've no head to our body, no sole to our feet—
We are beaten, we're beaten, we're shockingly beat!
Capitol Hill. GRUNTER.

CHOICE PASSAGES.

BY FRIDERIKKA BREMER.

COMMERCE.—Long life to commerce! My soul expands at the sight of its life. What has not commerce done from the beginning of the world for the embellishment of life, for promoting the friendly intercourse of countries and people, for the refinement of manners! It has always given me the most heartfelt delight that the wisest and most humane of the lawgivers of antiquity, Solon, was a merchant. "By trade," says one of his biographers, "by wisdom and music was his soul fashioned. Long life to commerce! What lives not through it?" What is all fresh life, all movement, in reality, but trade, exchange, gift for gift! In love, in friendship, in the great life of the people, in the quiet family circle, everywhere where I see happiness and prosperity, see I also trade; nay, what is the whole earth if not a colony from the mother country of Heaven, and whose well-being and happy condition depend upon free export and import? The simile might be still further carried out; yet, thou good Giver above, pardon us that we have ventured upon it!

LOVE AND LABOR.—The affectionate will lends even to dead things soul and life. But heavy to the ministering spirits in this life of labor and care for others, where no sunbeam of love, no cordial acknowledgment falls upon their laborious day.

OUR FAULTS.—It is with our faults as with horseradish—it is terribly difficult to extirpate it from the earth in which it has once taken root; and nothing is more discouraging to the cultivator who will annihilate this weed from his ground than to see it, so lately plucked up, shooting forth again freshly to the light from roots which remained buried in the earth. One can get quite out of patience with the weedy soil, and one is, when this soil is one's own dear self, possessed by the most cordial desire to set off far, far from one's self. But how!

SELF-CONDEMNATION.—Among many noble and valuable qualities, man has that of being able to condemn and sentence himself. And if we are justly displeased with any one, if we are wounded and repelled by word or deed, we should depend upon this quality, and permit it to operate reconcilingly upon our feelings. For while we are embittered by his offence, perhaps he himself may have wept in silence over it—waked in the silent hours of the night unpitifully to punish himself in the severe sanctuary of his conscience; and the nobler the human being, all the greater is his pang, even over failings which before the judgment seat of the world are very small or no faults at all; nay, he will not at all forgive himself if he cannot make atonement for his faults, and the hope of so doing is, in such painful hours, his only comfort.

THE SILENT COMBAT.—There is a silent combat which goes through the world, which is fought out in the reserved human heart, and at times—fearfully! It is the combat with evil and bitter thoughts. They are such thoughts as sometimes take expression, expression written in fire and blood. Then are they read before the judgment-seat and condemned. In many human hearts, however, they rage silently for long years; then are undermined by degrees, health, temper, love, faith, faith in life and faith in—a good God. With this sinks every thing.

TWO PICTURES.—Hast thou heard the fall of water-drops in deep caves, where heavily, and perpetually, and gnawingly they eat into the ground on which they fall! Hast thou heard the murmuring of the brook that flows sportively between green banks, whilst nodding flowers and beaming lights of heaven mirror themselves in its waters? There is a secret twittering and whispering of joy in it. There hast thou pictures of two kinds of still life, which are different the one from the other as hell and heaven. Both of them are lived on earth.

A CORRUPTED SOUL.—But ah! when one is artificially educated, there is nothing more difficult than to form oneself to a true and simple being. The most ravelled skein is more easy to rectify than an entangled and corrupted soul. And they alone can understand me, who, while they are laboring to raise themselves and to attain a higher stand, feel themselves perpetually, as it were, cast backward by a base demon into the deep pit from which they would mount, who have experienced the torment of feeling themselves below themselves.

THE VICIOUS.—It is the established rule in modern romance literature, to represent bad people or villains in an especial manner as strong and powerful men. But in real life we see it otherwise. Then we see that it is, above all, the upright, the noble man who is strong and mighty—who with his will and his faith stands firm to death. The base, the mean mind, may for a time appear strong and insolent; but in the hour of certain danger, a sudden outbreak of irresolution or cowardice proves that he bears a terrified heart in his breast, that he knows he stands upon trembling ground.

DOMESTIC LIFE.—"Domestic troubles," wrote lamenting a king who already is gone from the theatre of the world, "are in this respect different to public ones, that they bow down the soul by repeated pains, which every moment calls forth."

"I am the most fortunate man," wrote in a confidential letter, another king who yet bears upon his brow one of the noblest crowns of Europe, "and you will not find many who, like me, after a twenty years acquaintance and a nineteen years marriage, finds now the heart of his wife as divine, her eyes as heavenly, as in the first days of his love."
